PURCHASE PROPERTY FOR EAST END SCHOOL

Proposition Long Agitated by News-Times — To Begin Work at Once

Approximately $2,000 will be expended for the purchase of one-half block south of Lincoln way between Virginia and Melville sts., which will be used for the erection of the new east end school, which was agitated by the News-Times. This was decided upon at a meeting of the school board held Monday evening. Instruction were given to their real estate agent to close the deal immediately.

There will be no portable school, but instead work will begin immediately on the permanent building.

The agitation for this school was started by The News-Times about a year ago, and through its efforts a meeting was held in a vacant store in that part of the city, which was attended by members of the school board and residents of that locality. The sentiment was strongly in favor of the improvement and the board was impressed by the various talks made on the subject.

Since the advent of the Gillette Motors Co. to the city, and its avowed intention to employ many hands and the era of general prosperity being experienced by all east end manufacturers, the new school will be a decided boon.

Prolongs School Year. Of interest to the pupils is the announcement of the extension of the school year from nine to ten months. Heretofore the school term ended about the last of May but school this year will probably terminate one month later.

Paul Girch and Tony Girch, aged 7 and 6 years, formerly inmates of the Mishawaka Orphans home, are in jail in Michigan City awaiting a disposition of their case. These youngsters are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Girch. When Patrolman Jensen of Michigan City was going through the alley back of the Salzberg store, 817-821 Franklin st., Friday night at midnight, he found the two youngsters using a flashlight at one of the basement windows and when he sought to ascertain what they were doing the boys ran through an alley to Franklin st., but the flashlight caught them. Besides the flashlight, the boys had a bicycle wrench, a pair of auto goggles, an elastic bulb, lead pencils.

The children, two sons and a daughter, were taken from the parents by a Hammond Charity organization and placed in a home at Crown Point, later they were transferred to Mishawaka. The girl is still at the local orphanage.

KRONWITTER BEATEN IN CRIMINAL CASE

Special Judge Schindler Finds John Kronewitter Guilty in City Court.

Another chapter in the now notorious John Kronewitter liquor case was terminated Tuesday morning in city court by Special Judge John Schindler, who rendered his decision in the criminal case against John Kronewitter for the unlawful selling of intoxicating liquors and fined him $50 and costs.

Counsel for the defendant immediately appealed to the superior court.

This decision was carried over by Judge Schindler after hearing the evidence Monday. This verdict covers only the Frank Kerr affidavit, the complaint with James Lewis as chief witness will be tried Saturday morning in city court at 9 o'clock. The evidence of Kerr and Lewis and two other men, who testified they had bought drinks in the Kronewitter saloon Aug. 31, secured the state prosecutors in a conviction.

Judge Schindler carefully prepared his verdict, explaining the many legal technicalities which were brought forth during the trial. He upheld the license granted by the county commissioners and affirmed the defendant's contention that a sufficient tender had been made to the city officials for a city license. "However," said Mr. Schindler, "I believe that John Kronewitter should refrain from selling liquor until the mandamus in the superior court demanding that the city give him a license should be ruled upon. Evidence showing his violation of the liquor law on Aug. 31 is conclusive and I find him guilty."

John Kronewitter was ordered to close his saloon until litigation in the city court be disposed of, to which he agreed. One hundred dollars bond was furnished.

Judge Vernon Van Fleet and the city attorney appeared for the city. Isaac Kane Parks and P. C. Ferguson acted as the saloon keeper's attorneys.

FOOTBALL GAME WITH LOGANSPOUT PENDING

Coach Semeler is waiting impatiently for an answer from the Logansport high school to ascertain whether they will play the locals at Logansport, Saturday, Sept. 30. The coach had a game arranged with St. Joseph, Mich., for the coming Saturday but St. Joseph's team cancelled it at the last moment and left Mishawaka without a game scheduled and with small chance of getting one as it is late in the season. The lineup that will probably be pitted against the downstate team in case they play is, Brady, Gardner, ends; Hieck, Beeher, tackles; McMillan, Cuddahy, Bechtel, guards; Obenchain, Mechemberg, center; Boles, (Capt.) and Crum, halfbacks; Stanley, fullback.

"Chuck" Waldner, one of last year's fastest men has reported and is back to fight for his old position at end. The sale of season tickets was very large this year, and a good attendance at the games is guaranteed.

ACTS BIG AID TO BUSINESS WORLD

President in Address to Grain Men Predicts Further Prosperity For Nation.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 26.—Pres't Wilson delivered a speech at most devoid of politics before the National Grain Dealers convention here Monday. Discussing ways in which American commerce can be expanded, he told an audience of 3,800 people that through the new tariff commission, the trade commission, the federal reserve act, the shipping bill and similar measures, he expected business men in this country to open up a new era for the nation.

"The purpose of legislation in the immediate future in this country," Mr. Wilson declared, "is going to be to remove all ingenious constructions and make it perfectly clear what the liberties as well as what the restrictions of trade are in this country."

Met With Demonstration

Every effort was made by the president to keep the visit to Baltimore nonpartisan. When he entered the Lyric theater for his speech he was greeted with a four minute demonstration which kept him bowing again and again. The president spoke emphatically and several exclamations, usually missing in his addresses, were found in the official copy of his speech.

Regret that politics might interfere with the discussion of problems facing American business was expressed by the president at the outset. He declared he had "a supreme contempt for partisan action," although believing in "party action." He urged that his audience divest itself of "the consciousness that we are in the midst of a political campaign."

Stands For Good Faith

Once the president, speaking of the nations of Latin America, said his "chief concern" had been to see that "nothing was done that did not show friendship and good faith on our part." This statement was greeted by the most prolonged applause of the speech.

Co-operation between the government and business men, between business men and their employees, was urged as the only way in which the United States can meet the competition of the world.

"My dream," he declared, "is that she will take her place in the great field in a new spirit which the world has never seen before; not the spirit of those who would exclude others but in the spirit of those who would excel others."

After saying that until the new banking and shipping laws were passed the hands of American business men were tied, the president discussed his ideals for the new tariff commission.

Wants Facts Not Theories

"We have admitted," he said, "that on the one side and on the other side we were talking theories and managing policies without a sufficient knowledge of the facts."

FORMER BANKER PRAISES TANLAC

J. H. Beiger, Prominent Mishawaka Man, Recommends the New Medicine.

One of the best known residents of this vicinity, J. H. Beiger, a traveling salesman for the Mishawaka Woolen Mills Co., who lives at 538 Lincoln way W., praises Tanlac, the new medicine now being introduced in South Bend and Mishawaka, for relief he derived through its use.

Mr. Beiger has been prominent in this community for a number of years. He formerly was a member of the board of directors of the Mishawaka Trust & Savings Bank Co., and for several years has been in his present position. He is known by hundreds of friends in South Bend and Mishawaka as a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity.

"I suffered from rheumatism and I also had liver and kidney trouble," Mr. Beiger said on September 19. "The rheumatism caused pains in my limbs and my joints frequently would become swollen. My kidneys were in a general run down condition. My bowels were very irregular and my blood was in poor condition."

"Friends recommended Tanlac to me and I decided to try it. I've taken one bottle of Tanlac now and I feel much better in every respect. I'm not bothered with my kidneys now and my blood is in much better condition. The constipation has left me. My blood is in better condition now than for years."

"I have found Tanlac to be just as represented. It's just the medicine I've been looking for and I recommend it to all my friends and others."

This statement coming from a man of Mr. Beiger's prominence, is another proof of the value of Tanlac. It is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, and the like.

Tanlac is now being introduced in Mishawaka at the Red Cross Pharmacy, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public.—Adv.

SLIM CROWD AT GOODRICH TALKS

Band Musters Up About 25 People For His Address at Plymouth.

By Staff Correspondent. PLYMOUTH, Ind., Sept. 26.—Republicans in this county are making strenuous efforts to form a stable and fighting organization but even the leaders are admitting the task a difficult one. Although state and district candidates have already done much campaigning in the county there is such a noticeable lack of interest in standpoint activities that the leaders appear to be somewhat discouraged.

Although Marshall county is known as a democratic county, not in years has there been such an appearance of lethargy on the part of the rank and file of the republican party around here. One of the most striking examples of this situation as pointed out by politicians here, was the tour of the county made last week by Jim Goodrich, republican nominee for governor.

Goodrich was scheduled for speeches at Culver, Argos, Tippecanoe, Bourbon and Plymouth. The republicans claimed a crowd of but 100 persons for Goodrich at Culver, and the attendance at the meetings in Tippecanoe and Bourbon was so small that no figures were obtainable. At Argos not more than 75 heard the candidate talk. As a climax to this disappointing day of campaigning, Goodrich came to Plymouth to conduct a meeting and found a crowd that he did not feel warranted a speech. Although a band attempted to attract a crowd, not more than 25 outside of the regular party workers gathered so the candidate did his talking individually.

Crowds Are Small

Old timers here declare that they cannot recall the time in Plymouth's history when a candidate for governor received such a chilly reception. They also assert that the reception given to Charles Evans Hughes, presidential candidate, Saturday afternoon, was marked by the smallness of the crowd. There was a mere
